Saint Cecilia's
Church of England School

Welcome to Saint Cecilia's Church of England School

We are a vibrant Church of England secondary school with a distinctive Christian ethos for pupils aged 11-18 years. Our school opened in September 2003 in the heart of Southfields, SW18.

We are a co-educational comprehensive school and pride ourselves on our inclusivity. We are truly non-selective, and welcome children of all abilities.

Consistently oversubscribed, we have over 950 pupils on roll, including approximately 200 students in our thriving Sixth Form.

'Pupils reported that they feel safe and well supported in school.'

Saint Cecilia's Family

We call ourselves the Saint Cecilia's Family. We get to know our pupils well and support each child through mentoring and excellent pastoral care. Pupils here feel valued, respected, encouraged and included.

'You and your team have created a caring, supportive and successful learning community where pupils attend regularly and achieve well.'

Our Christian ethos runs through all we do

We are a proudly Christian school that values the uniqueness of each individual made in the image of God. Faith, courage, justice, hope, reconciliation and community are at the heart of Saint Cecilia's - firmly rooted in our school ethos and relationships.

Glorifying God through outstanding, enjoyable education.

'The school's ethos is underpinned by the Christian faith and is much valued by parents and carers and pupils.'

Great Curriculum

We teach a curriculum that is ambitious, intentionally demanding and rich with opportunity. Our curriculum is broad and balanced, delivers cultural capital and is appropriately skills based.

Our extra-curricular programme is extensive and this, coupled with school trips, competitive sports activities, music groups and more, will inspire, nurture and support your child to reach their full potential.

Great Learning

Our curriculum ensures great learning, delivered through first-class teaching, which will challenge and encourage your child. Our effective assessment and feedback will support your child to build their knowledge and apply their skills so that they achieve and make progress.

Our pupils and students achieve excellent academic results, consistently outperforming national averages. Our leavers continue onto some of the most prestigious universities and colleges or begin employment with a range of traineeships. This is all the more impressive as we are a non-selective school.

Great Professionalism

Our teaching staff are well-qualified and experienced – teaching is their specialism and their passion. All our teachers are committed to life long learning, and develop their knowledge, expertise and leadership through a comprehensive Continuing Professional Development programme.

Our pupils and students have a positive attitude to learning, attendance is good and we have high expectations of hard work, behaviour and conduct.

Our students have a positive attitude to learning.

Great Partnerships

We are local and community orientated. We have strong links with community groups, local charities and a network of local churches. We have high expectations of parental involvement in your child's education. Parents automatically become members of the parent body The Friends of Saint Cecilia's.

We have nurtured partnerships with a number of local primary schools, to ensure a smooth transition when their Year 6s become our Year 7s. We work together to support each other ensuring high quality education and opportunities for all our children.

Abundance of opportunity

Our school is dynamic, vibrant and full of inspiration for your child. We will offer your child a space to grow, unencumbered. Our pupils are encouraged to take on roles of responsibility across the school. This, coupled with our curricular and extra-curricular offer, gives all children an abundance of opportunity to thrive.

John 10 verse 10:
'I came so that you may have life, and have it abundantly.'

opportunities to thrive.

Music is our specialism

We take Music seriously at Saint Cecilia's and have an enviable reputation for our music provision. Years 7-9 have timetabled music lessons each week and we run a range of opportunities for all pupils and students to practise, play or perform including: Choir, Musical Theatre Club, Concert Band, Concert Orchestra, Jazz Band, Guitar Club, Music Technology Club, Percussion Club and more. Our music groups perform across Europe and at prestigious venues in London including the Royal Festival Hall.

Our GCSE and A Level Music grades outperform most other schools, with students winning places at top music colleges.
