

Spiritual Development Curriculum Areas

What Spiritual Development is NOT	What spiritual development IS
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• It is NOT moral, social, cultural development• Additional box on the DDP or an afterthought• Only for those with religious beliefs or a religious background	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• It is spiritual development – the spirit and soul of a person• Influences all areas of education and areas of life• Something that everyone (staff and pupils) can develop regardless of religious beliefs or backgrounds

Spiritual development is helping our pupils and students to develop and grow in character which are described in the Bible as the being the Fruit (or characteristics) of the [Holy] Spirit. They are: Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Faithfulness, Gentleness and Self-control.
